Grant Request Information

GRANT REQUEST INFORMATION

Project or Program Name

TESTMFA Org

Please place your project within one of these five primary categories.

If your application is for a specific project or program, you will have to clearly define and articulate your proposal, its artistic relevance, where it will take place, that you have the tools and experience to execute it, the impact this will have on your organization and/or the community, the metrics you propose, and your intended audience.

Recognizing that the effects of COVID-19 pandemic will still likely be impacting performance, rehearsal, education, and exhibition spaces, as well as audiences in 2024 and 2025, grants within the five primary categories may also support:

- a.Virtual programming.
- b.Programs presented in unusual spaces.
- c.Programs reaching isolated audiences and those with limited internet access.
- d.New works and projects that may only get to workshop/reading stage for now.

Applications along these lines (referenced above) must demonstrate realistic strategies to reach and measure broad and underserved audiences.

What is the primary category of your project?

SHARE YOUR VISION

Now is your chance to provide details about your request. Please be succinct. We want to be respectful of the panelists' time and the important work before them.

Before you start, please review the rubric considerations for your specific category.

Open Judges' Rubric

OPENING PITCH: Give us your "elevator speech" about your proposal.

Please give a very brief description of your request. Consider this something you could say in about 20 seconds during an elevator ride to "sell" your idea or insert it as a tiny blurb in a news outlet. (75 word limit)

asdf

MERIT AND SIGNIFICANCE: Tell us what we need to know about your proposal. Tell us what it is, where it will take place, what neighborhood it might serve and how you see it unfolding. Tell us about the impact you hope this program will have and whom it will affect. This is your chance to get the panelists excited about your vision!

Limit 300 words

asdf

ORGANIZATION/CAPABILITY: Tell us more about your organization and the resources and talent you have to execute your project. Share how the award will impact your organization. At the end of this application, you will upload the organization's annual operating budget. Share anything else we need to know about it, the role this award plays in the budget, and the significance it has on the budget. If this is a multi-year request, explain how that will be broken out and dispensed. Share with us information about other support acquired or needed to ensure success.

asdf

METRICS/AUDIENCE: Define your vision of success and propose reasonable metrics for your program. Define your target audience, how many you hope to reach and how you plan to reach them. If culturally underserved, explain specifically how you intend to identify, communicate, inform and engage that audience?

Limit 300 words

asdf

WHAT IS AHEAD?: Do you have a plan to keep the benefits of your program coming, keep new audiences returning, keep the underserved engaged, and share lessons / best practices learned with others in the cultural community?

Limit 300 words

The Cultural Policy of the City of Dallas (11/28/2018), based on the Dallas Cultural Plan 2018, includes these two definitions:

ALAANA – “African, Latinx, Asian, Arab, and Native American. This also includes Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander (category as defined by the US Census Bureau).”

ALAANA Organization – “an ALAANA organization is one whose primary intentions, practices, and mission are by, for, or about ALAANA artists, cultures, and communities. The word “for” refers to the intention of the organization to perpetuate, promote, and present art that is representative of an ALAANA culture and people and/or is given form by ALAANA artists.”

Based on these definitions, please answer Yes or No to the following questions:

Is your organization an ALAANA organization?

Yes

Is your board 30% or more ALAANA?

Yes

Is your senior staff leadership 50% or more ALAANA?

Yes

According to the US Census Bureau, the City of Dallas' population is approximately 70% ALAANA.

Is the audience you serve reflective of the diversity of the City of Dallas?

Yes

Please use the blue "Mark as Complete" button to move into the next section. Then look to the left side of your screen and choose the next step you wish to complete.

You may complete these steps in any order. However, in order to begin "Applicant Certification", you must have completed all other sections. You need to see a green checkmark in front of all completed sections before proceeding to the end.

You may come back to any section by locating the three lateral dots (ellipsis) on the upper right-hand corner and choosing "EDIT".

Please do not choose "Reset" as that will erase the application information and it cannot be recovered.
