2023 Moody Fund for the Arts Application

All fields required unless otherwise noted.

Eligibility

ELIGIBILITY

This opening section of the application will determine your eligibility to apply for a grant in the 2023 Moody Fund for the Arts program.

Is your organization based in the city of Dallas?

(NOTE: This specifically means within the municipality of the City of Dallas. It does not mean any city within Dallas County.)

Yes

Does your organization have 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status and is it classified a Public Charity with the Internal Revenue Service?

Yes

Has your organization received funds from the City of Dallas Office of Arts and Culture (OAC)?

Note: If you have signed a contract or received funds from OAC, you must be in good standing with them. An organization that is non-compliant with OAC's contract, will not be eligible for a grant.

Yes – receiving in current fiscal year (10/1/22 to present)

Do you have an annual operating budget of less than $1 million?

Yes

Has your organization had a minimum of three years producing relevant work or services?

(NOTE: Tax-exempt status for the entire three years is not necessary.)

Yes

Is the amount of funding you are requesting $12,000 or less?

Note: A multi-year request is acceptable, but the amount to be awarded in 2023 may not exceed the amount above. Receiving funds during this cycle does not guarantee funds in future years.

Yes

Is this your first request to the Moody Fund for the Arts for this 2023-2024 grant cycle?

Yes

Grant Request Information

GRANT REQUEST INFORMATION

Project or Program Name

2023 MFA Test Program

Please place your project within one of five primary categories.

You will then have to clearly define and articulate your proposal, the artistic relevance of the project, where it will take place, that you have the tools and experience to execute it, the impact this will have on your organization and/or the community, the metrics you propose and your intended audience.

Recognizing that the COVID pandemic may still be impacting performance, rehearsal, education and exhibition spaces, as well as audiences in 2023-2024, grants within the five primary categories may also support:

a.Virtual programming.

b.Programs presented in unusual spaces.

c.Programs reaching isolated audiences and those with limited internet access.

d.New works and projects that may only get to workshop/reading stage for now, but held until reopening.

Applications along these lines (referenced above) must demonstrate realistic strategies to reach and measure broad and underserved audiences.

What is the primary category of your project?

General Program & Operating Cost Support

What is the principal genre that applies to your project or program, if applicable?

(Choose only one)

SHARE YOUR VISION

Now is your chance to provide details about your request. Please be succinct. We want to be respectful of the panelists' time and the important work before them.

Before you start, please review the rubric considerations for your specific category.

Open Judges' Rubric

OPENING PITCH: Give us your "elevator speech" about your proposal.

Please give a very brief description of your request. Consider this something you could say in about 20 seconds during an elevator ride to "sell" your idea, or insert as a tiny blurb in a news outlet.

Limit 75 words

MERIT AND SIGNIFICANCE: Tell us what we need to know about your proposal. Tell us what it is, where it will take place, what neighborhood it will serve and how you see it unfolding. Tell us about the impact you hope this program will have and whom it will affect. This is your chance to get the panelists excited about your vision!

Limit 300 words

test copy

ORGANIZATION/CAPABILITY: Tell us more about your organization and the resources and talent you have to execute your project. Share how the award will impact your organization. At the end of this application, you will upload the organization's annual operating budget. Share anything else we need to know about it, the role this award plays in the budget, and the significance it has on the budget. If this is a multi-year request, explain how that will be broken out and dispensed. Share with us information about other support acquired or needed to ensure success.

Limit 300 words

METRICS/AUDIENCE: Define your vision of success and propose reasonable metrics for your program. Define your target audience, how many you hope to reach and how you plan to reach them. If culturally underserved, explain specifically how you intend to identify, communicate, inform and engage that audience?

Limit 300 words

test copy

What Is Ahead?: Do you have a plan to keep the benefits of your program coming, keep new audiences returning, keep the underserved engaged, and share lessons / best practices learned with others in the cultural community?

Limit 300 words

The Cultural Policy of the City of Dallas (11/28/2018), based on the Dallas Cultural Plan 2018, includes these two definitions:

ALAANA - “African, Latinx, Asian, Arab, and Native American. This also includes Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander (category as defined by the US Census Bureau).”

ALAANA Organization - “an ALAANA organization is one whose primary intentions, practices, and mission are by, for, or about ALAANA artists, cultures, and communities. The word “for” refers to the intention of the organization to perpetuate, promote, and present art that is representative of an ALAANA culture and people and/or is given form by ALAANA artists.”

Based on these definitions, please answer Yes or No to the following questions:

Is your organization an ALAANA organization?

Yes

Is your board 30% or more ALAANA?

No

Is your senior staff leadership 50% or more ALAANA?

Yes

According to the US Census Bureau, the City of Dallas' population is approximately 70% ALAANA.

Is the audience you serve reflective of the diversity of the City of Dallas?

Yes
